

Adjective Functions

Term	Word order	Emphasis	Example	Translation	Comments
First attributive position	article - adjective - noun	Adjective emphasized	ὁ ἀγαθὸς λόγος	The good word
Second attributive position	article - noun - article - adjective	equal emphasis	ὁ λόγος ὁ ἀγαθὸς γραφῆς ἀγίας	The good word the Holy Scriptures
Anarthrous attributive, post position	noun - adjective		ἄλλος μεθητής	another disciple
Anarthrous attributive, pre-position	adjective - noun	style or adjective emphasis	ὅλω τῷ οἴκῳ	with his entire house	attributive sense
Anarthrous attributive, irregular adj.	adjective - article - noun		ὁ λόγος ἀγαθός	The word is good	Sometimes being verb is implied
Predicate adjective, post position	article - noun - adjective		ἀγαθὸς ὁ λόγος	The word is good	Sometimes being verb is implied
Predicate adjective, pre position	adjective - article - noun		ἡ ἀγαθή (ὁ ἀγαθὸς)	The good woman (ones)
Substantive adjective, pre position	article - adjective (implied noun)		ἕτερος	Another (of His disciples)
Substantive adjective, articular	adjective (implied noun)		ἀναστῆσονται	rise first
Adverbial	verb - adjective (also adj - verb?)		πρῶτον

Most adjectives are post position

Meanings

articular	with the article
anarthrous	without the article
attributive	assigns a quality to the noun modified - "the good word" predicate	an adj or noun makes an assertion about the substantive - "the word is good"
substantive	noun has the article, not the adjective functions as noun - " the good [man]" adverbial	functions as adverb
post position/ post positive	following a word pre-position/prepositive	preceding a word
object complement	a second accusative making an assertion about the direct object noun /pronoun